NO DATES SCHEDULE NOW

KENTUCKY STATE RACING COMMISSION WILL DEFER ACTION ON MATTER.

Col. M. J. Winn Returns from the East, Agrees with Wisdom of Decision and Makes it Known that Juarez is on a Paying Basis.

Lexington, Ky., January 5.—The allotment of racing dates for Kentucky tracks will not be made until all members of the State Racing Commission can be present, and this because of the absence of Chairman E. F. Clay, who is now at his winter home in Florida, is not likely to be done for about sixty days. This was made known definitely upon the arrival here from New York this morning of General Manager Matt J. Winn of the New Louisville Jockey Club, who came expecting that there would be a meeting of the commission tomorrow. After he had talked with Vice-chairman Milton Young of the commission and Secretary Garrett Wilson of the Kentucky Association, Colonel Winn expressed satisfaction with the decision of Colonel Young not to call a meeting at this time. "To have dates known in January would be some advantage, but we can proceed quite as well with the understanding that we are to know them about the middle of March." said he. "You may say, with reference to the Louisville situation, that the managers of Churchill Downs and Douglas Park have agreed to leave the question of dates to the Kentucky State Racing Commission and will abide by the commission's allotment. There will be no turf war at Louisville or elsewhere in Kentucky. We all want peace, harmony and prosperity and that is what we are working for."

Colonel Winn left this afternoon for Louisville. He will return to Juarez to stay until April. He said that the Juarez meeting is being conducted at a profit and that for the first time since the plant was opened, it looks like the owners will realize some return upon their investment. He said he found the situation in New York improving, inasmuch as a greater number of people appeared to be in favor of reopening the tracks and hopeful for meeting at Mexico City and, said the meeting last fail-ind-been a losing proposition and that a further loss of at least $200,000 would be necessary to educate the Mexican public sufficiently to make the beautiful Condess track self-sustaining thereafter.

DENNY DOES SOME ROUGH RIDING.

Is Suspended for Causing Mix-up in Handicap Feature of Juarez Program.

El Paso, Tex., January 5.—W. G. Yanke's Lackrose won the six-furlongs handicap at Juarez today from Rey Hindoo and Kootenay. The race was not truly run by any means, as Denny, on Pride of Lismore, cut across his opponents nearing the half-mile post, forcing Rey Hindoo, Closer, Roy Junior and Florence Roberts to pull up and almost unseating several riders. Rey Hindoo quickly recovered and was the only horse to get near Lackrose at the finish, Lackrose luckily escaped all interference and was enabled thereby to take the lead from Kootenay. The stewards suspended fockey Denny for ten days for rough riding in the handicap. It was erroneously reported yesterday that jockey T. Rice had been suspended for ten days, when it was Frasch that received the punishment.

FILTURITY NOMINATIONS NUMBER 2016

FUTURITY NOMINATIONS NUMBER 375.

John E. Madden Heads List of Nominations, with August Belmont in Second Place.

August Belmont in Second Place.

New York, January 5.—The Coney Island Jockey Club has received 375 nominations for the Futurity of 1914. The entries closed January 2 and it is probable that the list will be swelled considerably when the last mails are received. John E. Madden is the most liberal nominator with a total of 86. August Belmont named 45, and Henry T. Oxuard is third with 40. Harry Payne Whitney made 22 entries and J. N. Camden 20. while E. R. Bradley has 18 eligibles and J. B. Haggin, who in former years headed the list, made 15 entries

There are forty-five different interests represented and the most notable absentee is James R. Keene, though his late establishment, Castleton Stud, is represented by various stallions.

The stallions represented by various stallions.

The stallions represented include Rock Sand, Voter, Planudes, Ogden, Star Shoot, Watercress, The Scribe, Oddfellow, Don Royal, St. Savin, St. Simonian II., Dublin, Canopus, Red Fox, Gold Finch, Peep o'Day, Mazagan, Sandringham, Marta Santa, Monsieur de L'Orme, Disguise, Plaudit, Gramament, Hastlings, Hamburg, Fair Play, Yankee, Singleton, Cunard, Helmet, Peter Quinec, Don De Oro, Heno, Waterboy, Ormondale, Peter Pan, Electioneer, The Picket, Ben Brush, King Hanover, Uncle, Broomstick, Burgomaster, Nasturtium, Prince of Melbourne, Golden Maxim, Von Tromp, Hippodrome, Aeronaut, Salvation, Luke Ward, Luck and Charity, Bryn Mawr, Cherry Pit, Hurst Park, Banyah, Ellisdale, Fayette, Sir Wilfred, English Lad and Tony Bonero.

AMERICAN OWNERS WHO WON $3,000 OR MORE DURING 1911

In the matter of owners whose horses won for them an aggregate of $4,000 or more there was a falling off from 166 in 1910 to 127 in 1911. There was also a corresponding decrease in the gross sum of money divided by such owners to the extent of the significant sum of $558,806. The descent from the flourishing conditions of a few years back to the present sharply contrasting state of affairs financial is well expressed in the following presentment of the case:

ear	r. Total Distribution.	Winners of $4,000 and Over.	Winners of $4,000 and Over.
08	$4,351,691	188	$3,051,801
		174	1,987,633
		166	1,819,698
11		127	1,250,892
	Falling off from 1908	61	$1,800,909

By going farther back than 1908 a still more glaring contrast could be shown, but the foregoing statement is sufficient to show that racing has been freed from the commercialism that engendered the undescreet hostility which culminated in destructive legislation in New York, Missouri, California, Tennessee, Texas and Louislana, as well as strict legal repression and oppression in Illinois and Indiana. No owner can now indulge in dreams of a fortune to be won in a single successful year. The fathiful turfman of the present time race their horses for love of the sport, well content if track earnings are sufficient to defray stable expenses.

Samuel C. Hildreth was the leading owner of 1911, just as he was in 1910 and 1909. In again securing him this exalted position as a turfman als good horses won for him less than a third of what they amassed in 1910. His fleet and staying three-year-old, Zeus, was his principal money earner with $12,960 to his credit. Then in order his other principal contributors were Hampton Court, Shannon, The Welkin, Little Pal, Restigouche, Royal Meteor, Puggins, Fitz Herbert, Novelty, King James, Gold Blade and Woodcraft. The great stars of the stable, Fitz Herbert, King James and Novelty, were not raced much. Novelty won $1.845, contrasting filly with his $72,630 won in 1910. At the close of the racing season Hildreth sold his eather stable to Charles Kohler and it has been stated that its best horses are to be sent to England to be raced in 1912, with Hildreth acting as their trainer. But the horses are still in this country. The apparent result of this sale is to climinate Hildreth from American racing, for a time at least.

Coincident with the loss of Hildreth is the retirement of James R. Keene from American racing. In 1911, for the first time in many years, his colors were absent from our tracks, but a small stable raced for him successfully in England. As our leading owner in 1905, 1906, 1907 and 1908 and the winner in 1907 of the greatest sum ever won in one year by any owner in New York, January 5.—Eddie Dugan left Sheepshead Bay today for Charleston, where he will ride Richard F. Carman's horses. Dugan has been engaged to ride during the racing season of 1912 in Austria for Baron Rothschild.

Mr. Carman's stable will be one of the strongest for mace at the newly erected course. The string comprises twenty-four horses. The collection has been quartered in the mammoth Harry Payne Whitney barn at Alken for six weeks, and it is reported that nearly all the members of the older division that nearly all the members of the older division have shown surprisingly good form in recent trials.

Washington, D. C. January 5.—Major Henry T. Allen of the office of Chief of Staff, War Departium, recently visited Henry T. Oxnard's Blue Ridge Wire Prince of Melbourne, next stable will be reading the members of the older division have shown surprisingly good form in recent trials.

FINISH FINALLY IN SIGHT

FAVORABLE WEATHER SPEEDS CONSTRUCTION WORK ON CHARLESTON TRACK.

Only Finishing Touches Remain to Be Applied-Arrivals of Horsemen and Horses Continue -Gossip as to Legislation.

Charleston, S. C., January 5.—Today's clear weather afforded opportunities to the constructors of the racing plant at Palmetto Park to utilize their full working forces and make considerable headway towards completion. The big fill that had been threatening to delay the opening finally yielded to the constant work on it and the swamp-like ground is now a solid stretch and will form part of the circular oval over which the horses will race. As to the track proper, there only remains a small amount of leveling to be done before it is in complete condition. The finishing touches will be applied long before Monday, as it is intended to work the full force of laborers on Sunday next. The rails around the track are already in course of erection and this work will be finished by Saturday next. Only interior details are lacking to complete the grandstand, the structure being now entirely covered by a roof. The installation of chairs started today and this task will be completed by Sunday.

The big special from Kentucky is due to arrive tonight and will consist of nine cars of racers, two sleepers, a diner, day and baggage coaches, In the shipment are the horses owned by G. W. J. Bissell, William J. Young, Walter House, J. Tandy Hughes, L. P. Doerhoefer, L. V. Bellew, T. Abadie, L. Kelly, James MacManus, J. J. Flannigan and others. The horsemen will find everything arranged for the comfort of the horses on their arrival at the course. Thirty horses, comprising the shipment of W. P. Burch and Dr. J. S. Tyree, arrived this afternoon from Washington, D. C. On the same train came Mr. Burch, who will serve as the presiding steward during the meeting. Dr. Tyree's horses are in charge of Bernie Hill, who succeeded William Oliver as trainer for the Tyree stable. Mr. Hill recently returned from France, where he was in charge of the younger Burch's horses during their campaign on the French courses.

The street railway company put on a big force today to inaugurate work on the big spur from the main line to the grandstand. This w a capacity of 100 passengers will be supplied by the Isle of Palms interurban road and used on the race track line.

Among the horsemen who have been here with their horses for some time awaiting the opening are W. Hurley, W. Gerst, G. H. Holle, James Griffin, P. Hyams, W. O. Joplin, C. Cochell, J. W. Flynn, G. W. Scott, R. S. Brush, Lon Johnson, G. B. Morris, J. C. Cahn, M. Foley, Gallaher Bros., G. R. Bryson, W. T. Anderson, W. P. Austin, E. F. Condran, T. R. Condran, T. K. Condran, T. K. Condran, T. A. Consignment of two-year-olds from Oklahoma, owned by J. L. Holland, is due tomorrow.

A division of Barney Schreiber's horses that will be raced here in charge of William Cahill, will arrive tomorrow. The lot will include Sager, which is expected to be a factor in the racing. The F. H. Milden and F. D. Weir horses, including Idlewelss, Helene, Husky Lad and others, will arrive tomorrow from Columbia. Catesby Woodford's band that were raced at Columbia and those of E. W. Moore, who also has charge of A. Brown's string, including Bettle St. Lat. Year's Kentucky Gaks winner, will reach the track Sunday.

P. A. Brady, who will serve as one of the stewards, arrived today from Columbia.

The office force of the racing association was busily engaged today in taking care of the numerous applications for licenses made by trainers, jockeys and valets. The applications will have to be passed on by the stewards here, before they will be granted. The steamers plying between Charleston and New York are crowded with passengers, nearly all of whom are race folk from New York and other eastern cities.

At the request of the local racing management, who wish to do everything in their power to protect the public against pickpockets and other crooks here. Major Richard Sylvester, chief of police of Washington of securing an expert detective who should go to Charleston and assist in keeping guard against the light-fingered profession. The result is that M. A. Holstein, who has been a member of the Washington of securing an expert

The Columbia correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier, writing on the subject of prospective legislation aimed at racing during the session of the South Carolina legislature which will begin on Tucesday next, has this to say:

"Should a bill preventing betting on races pass the legislature, it will have to go to the governor and should he approve it it will go on the state books. However, and here is where the uncertainty books. However, and here is where the uncertainty less, what attitude would the governor assume? No statement from him on the racing situation has been obtained recently as to what attitude he would take in the event that a bill such as is outlined above were passed. Of course, the matter would be theroughly threshed out and argued pro and con before the legislature so that it seems now that the Charleston race meeting can run its prescribed number of the event the governor approved it, have it to go into effect immediately, or if the governor should the event the governor approved it, have it to go into effect immediately, or if the governor should be interfered with, but there is small likelihood of any such hasty action, and, the deed, the legislature is just as likely as not to refuse to pass any bill against racing. The whole mater is purely one of speculation."

MERCHANTS FEEL LACK OF RACING.

New York. January 5.—One of the most prominent merchants of New York, with an establishmeat which is one of the largest of its kind in the world, is quoted in an interview in the Evening Telegram to the effect that he is positive that the passing of the anti-racing laws in this state had severely crippled his business in the summer.

"Those who visited New York in the past because they wished to be present at one of the larger race meetings do not come here now," said he, "We are losing the benefit of that money which would have been put into circulation in this city. I am satisfied from personal investigation that the deprivation of racing is responsible for our losses. It seems to me that legislation which legislates a community out of pocket is not for the best interests of all."

HORSES THAT DIED IN 1911.

Among the horses composing the death list of 1911, there did not appear any names of transcendant importance, but at the same time a number were consigned to forgetfulness that caused some stir in their time. Of still young horses in their prime as racers, Governor Gray, Stinger and The Nigger were the most shining examples of those taken away untimely. Others noted in racing were Clamor, Friend Harry, Herkimer, Leah, Nethermost, Pantoutle, Samaria, Seismic, Special Brew, Topsy Robinson, Wrap and Whist. The stallions Oddfellow, Fatherless and St. Leonards and the broodmares Barcarola, Ignite, Monarka, Quesal and Shrine were the most notable losses to the breeding interests. The thoroughbreds that died in the course of the year were these:

Went to post at 2:20. At post 1 minute: Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

BEULAH Mc., close up from the start, took the lead when a sixteenth from the finish and stood a hard drive gamely. MAUD McKEE closed a gap and finished fast and gamely. ROSA RABLEE made up ground late a close up third. PHILOPENA ran well and will do soon. CASANOVA was speedy, but swung very wide and lost ground by it. QUEEN OF THE TURF is a good looker that will do from now on. INQUIETA ran out soon after the start, losing all chances.

1025 SECOND RACE—5-3 Mile. (95190—58%—9—108.) Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward.
